Report of Committee.

To R.I. Quarterly Meeting,

The Committee which was appointed to consider the condition of South Kingston Monthly Meeting reports, that in the present reduced condition thereof, it is their united judgment that it would be well to lay down or dissolve said Mon. Meetg and to extend the territory and jurisdiction of Greenwich Mo. Meetg to include the membership of said dissolved Mo. Meetg, and that district of Country within its limits, and the superintendence of all trust funds now held by it or under its care.

We find four special trusts in charge of this Meeting or its agents as follows. — Viz

1st — The Western Meeting Trust composed of the original legacy of Amy Knowles $136. and accrued income thereof $344.60 total $480.60.
There is no Meeting house, but there is a graveyard containing the bodies of many friends, including the donor of the fund.

2 mo 25th Third — The Tower Hill ground and burying ground, there being no meeting house there.

Fourth. — The proceeds of the Sale of the Riverside Meeting house, amounting to $246. —

The Discipline requires that a minute shall be entered on the Books of So Kingston Mo. Meeting before it is dissolved regularly transferring the property under its direction to the Superintendence of Greenwich Mo. Meeting. (See discipline of 1889 page 138)

We desire further to recommend to the Quarterly Meeting, that the several trust properties be carefully kept separate and apart from each other and strictly held and preserved with a purpose to the restoration at last of these several meetings, and as an encouragement thereto. And that as far as practicable the Trusts be kept in the hands of the present local Trustees thereof, if not in the hands of the Overseers who by law are a corporation authorized to hold such Trusts. We believe that in no event should Greenwich Mo. Meeting use these properties indiscriminately for its own religious use or charitable work, excepting in connection with the four Meetings of South Kingston Mo. Meeting above named, applying each trust to its own place, without a special order of Court.
